Also included on the ground floor is a utility room, cloakroom WC and under-stairs store cupboard.

The standings, Crich

The Standings is a welcome return to the area for Wheeldon with this striking development of quality family homes, set in the picturesque Derbyshire village of Crich. Choose from individually designed house styles, all spaciouly set over two floors, the three, four and one five bedroomed homes have a host of benefits which combine to provide a range of accommodation designs, offering you a home of real character and individuality.

Enjoy all the benefits of village lifestyle combined with the great outdoors in your delightful new home at Crich. This charming Derbyshire village is an exciting choice for The Standings our development of quality family homes, nestled amid established housing and farmland. Crich is a friendly and welcoming community with a thriving atmosphere and an ideal location for our individually designed house styles.

This development will provide a mix of three, four and five bedroomed detached and link-detached homes - traditionally built homes with thoughtfully designed layouts and desirable specifications

Location

The Standings is conveniently located just 10 miles to the northeast of Derby city centre. The surrounding villages and local towns, all offer a good choice of shops and services, with libraries, leisure centres, several public houses, a selection of restaurants and all the major super stores. Children are also well served educationally, with infant and primary and schools.

The area is rich in history and tradition with Wingfield Manor (site of the imprisonment of Mary Queen of Scots in the 1500's), Midland Railway Centre, Butterley and the famed Derbyshire view point of Crich Stand which is at the summit of Crich Hill, a Memorial Tower for those of the Sherwood Foresters regiment who died in battle, particularly in World War I. Built in 1923 on the site of an older tower called Crich Stand, the Memorial Tower is the destination of an annual pilgrimage on the first Sunday in July. It is 1,000 feet (300 m) above sea level, and has 52 steps to the top. From there eight counties can be seen, including landmarks such as the Humber Bridge and Lincoln Cathedral. The stand overlooks the Crich Tramway Village, home to the National Tramway Museum and well worth a visit with a host of family, fun based activities on offer.

Local Area

For those simply seeking a breath of fresh air, the local area is particularly rich with venues and locations in which to exercise, explore or simply unwind. The Standings, Crich borders acres of attractive and varied landscape. Whatever the season, there is always lots to see and do in the locality, with excellent facilities and opportunities to explore on foot, horse back or bicycle.

When you need to venture further afield, Crich enjoys served transport links, with a bus service to the market towns of Wirksworth, Alfreton and Clay Cross. A wider choice of shopping and leisure amenities can be found in Chesterfield or Derby. For commuters, getting out and about is easy too; as Crich is also conveniently located for the cities of Sheffield or Nottingham, both less than 25 miles away by car with convenient road access to the wider area.
